

El Dorado High School Daily Bulletin

Monday | October 28, 2019 | Pledge of Allegiance | Late Start Schedule

Announcements

We have a teacher shout out from Evan Dadant to Mr. Yoder: Evan says "Thank you to Mr. Yoder for making choir such a fun and entertaining class. I really appreciate how you care for each one of your students and always believe in us. You always push us to do our best and you really make El Dorado such an amazing environment!"

This week's Arts Person of the Week is Scott Brown. A member of DMAA and the EDHS Design Rescue team, Scott is a dedicated young man who always pushes himself to be the best Graphic Artist that he can be. Scott tends to come in early, stay late, and never settle for mediocre work. For these reasons, Scott Brown is this week's Arts Person of the Week.
- Mr. Block

The EDHS Gamers Club held it's Super Smash Brothers Tournament last week. From a crowd of 38 players, Junior, Trevor Elkins emerged to become the 2019 EDHS Smash Bros. Champion. Whether you attended or missed the event, you'll have another chance to compete because Mr. Block is planning a doubles, I repeat, a DOUBLES Smash Tournament in March.

The Socktober Drive is still going on until Thursday! Bring in new, unused socks to donate to homeless for the winter! Put your socks in the box by the Activities Office.
- Mr. C

Halloween Dress Up Day is on Thurs. Oct. 31st. We encourage everyone to participate (students and staff). To have a successful day remember: costumes must be selected and worn in good taste, you must be able to function normally in school, costumes are not to be connected to one another, costumes must meet dress code standards, shoes must be worn, no depiction of drugs, alcohol, etc, no ethnic characters or clown costumes, weapons, masks or face paint that conceals your identity. At lunch on Thursday will be the costume contest in the theatron. 1st & 2nd place will be awarded to: Most original, Cutest, Scariest, Funniest, Best Group/Couple.
