Outreach Information

Early Welcome is upon us! This is a great opportunity to have senior students participate in the SCC New Student Orientation and register for their classes EARLY!

What is the Early Welcome (AKA Priority Registration) Program? This exclusive program is offered only to graduating high school seniors who applied EARLY to Santiago Canyon College. Students who complete all of the Early Welcome steps will receive priority registration and Free Tuition through SCC's Promise Scholarship.

Students who have applied to SCC are receiving email information with updated info on the next steps to ensure they participate in the 2022 Early Welcome Program.

We are scheduling college presentations and application workshops for the early spring. If you are interested in having a presentation/event at your site, please contact us at delcarpio_melany@sccollege.edu or tran_loann@sccollege.edu. We look forward to seeing your students at our future events!

Dual Enrollment Information

More high school students are interested in taking dual enrollment classes. Do you want to learn more about the SCC Dual Enrollment Program so you can support your students? Join us for the Spring 2022 Virtual Dual Enrollment Orientation on Tuesday, January 18, at 6:00 pm – open to students, parents, high school counselors, and staff. See flyer below and click QR code to register!

HEERF – We are excited to extend the Higher Education Emergency Relief Funding to our dual enrollment students who took Fall 2021 classes and are taking Spring 2022 classes. We are in this together! If your dual enrollment students have questions about HEERF, please have them contact our office.

Graduating Seniors attending SCC in Fall 2022?

Students can take CNSL-106-08888 Inquiries to Higher Education Virtual Hybrid class. This is a 7-week Spring 2022 course to help them prepare for college, decide on a major/career, and work with a counselor to create an educational plan. AND they will receive $100 to use at the bookstore!

Campus Updates

High School Partners Conference is the new name for the High School Counselors Breakfast – this year's conference will be virtual via Zoom.

Spring semester starts February 7th

SCC has new, easier ways to search for classes

We offer online, hybrid, and in-person classes. Registration is open.

DID YOU KNOW?

We offer campus tours to students, families, schools, etc.
